

30 ways to help end modern slavery

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
	... unlocking doors that keep secrets silenced and people imprisoned!	1  The Price of Free is a new documentary on child labor and child slavery. On the Price of Free website, you can watch the film!	2  Buy Fair Trade products which ensure fair wages for workers, safe working conditions, prevention of child exploitation.	3  Light a candle and pray for a survivor today.	4  Include human trafficking into your professional realm, at conferences and within training manuals that relate to this discussion.	5  Speak with someone today about what you have learned about human trafficking in the past six months through your reading or other means.
6  Donate to an approved anti-trafficking group locally or globally.	7  Read a book about human trafficking; e.g., Girls Like Us, SOLD, Half the Sky, Not for Sale, Slave Hunter	8  Encourage information to be provided in school curriculums and in the classrooms.	9  Utilize Google alerts to keep you up to date on current involvements with human trafficking.	10  Support your area legislators in the passage of legislation against human trafficking.	11  Provide medical assistance for a victim of human trafficking.	12  Light a candle and pray for a perpetrator today.
13  Take a survivor to dinner today; find out how you can help with personal needs.	14  Find out who can provide pro bono legal assistance to survivors of human trafficking.	15  Join a task force initiative and help in whatever ways are needed.	16  Write a letter to a newspaper to bring awareness to the issues of human trafficking.	17  Provide financial assistance for the education of a trafficking survivor.	18  Volunteer at a local shelter for survivors of human trafficking.	19  Become aware of companies and products that may be involved with child labor. Use ILAB app.
20  Learn the indicators of human trafficking so you can help identify a potential trafficking victim.	21  Discover your slavery footprint at slaveryfootprint.org	22  Ask a local hotel owner or manager about the training provided their employees concerning human trafficking.	23  Organize a fundraiser and donate the proceeds to an anti-trafficking organization.	24  Explore a website dedicated to anti-human trafficking efforts, e.g. The CNN Freedom Project www.cnn.com	25  Explore the Global Slavery Index Globalslaveryindex.org	26  Take a gift of food to a survivor of human trafficking. Have a conversation with the person.
27  Learn more about what your church teaches about human slavery.	28  Speak to a local attorney about her/his level of understanding about human trafficking in your local area.	29  Help with a survivor's service animal by making a contribution to her/his veterinary clinic.	30  Download an anti-human trafficking app, such as TraffickCam.	31  PRAY and work ceaselessly for an end to modern slavery.	Distributed by  www.fspa.org/modernslavery  2019	