

PRAYER REQUESTS

Fr. James Gleason's brother Mr. Joseph Gleason, who has been admitted to a hospital because his health is failing;

Fr. Kyle Fisher, who continues to recuperate from surgery at St. Clement's in Ligouri, MO;

Fr. Dick Mevissen's sister Mrs. Jeanne Gullickson, who continues her recovery in Kent, WA;

The success of the General Chapter in Rome;

Our formation candidates and vocation prospects;

The entire St. Clement Health Care Center community, as well as all of the other members of the Province who are in need of prayer; and

All who support us in our ministries and their personal intentions.

Holy Names Remembers Sister Thea Bowman

Holy Names Church and School in Memphis, TN celebrated a Memorial Mass at Elmwood Cemetery on March 30 to commemorate the anniversary of the death of Sr. Thea Bowman, FSPA. Pastor Fr. Maurice Nutt presided at the heart-felt gathering of praise and worship.

Clockwise from left: The headstone at the grave of over 300 unnamed slaves who lost their lives by way of slavery - about 100 feet behind Sr. Thea's gravesite - served as an altar; Fr. Nutt at Sr. Thea's gravesite; Sr. Donna Banfield, SBS, the principal of Holy Names School, reads at Mass; Fr. Nutt celebrates Mass; and youngsters lead the procession through the cemetery to the site of the Mass celebration.
